PROJECTS

Personal Website

- Fully completed website featuring home, about me, resume, projects, and contact pages.
- Initially started as part of an intro web-design class but finished and polished in my spare time using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. Located at cmarqc.com

Stat Tracker App

- Made to track basketball stats such as points, rebounds, steals, etc. Made using Android Studio + Java as a personal project

Music Player App

- A basic music player that searches for .mp3 files on a person's phone and makes them available to play, pause, stop, etc. Made using Android Studio + Java as a personal project

Sinking Ships Game

- Simple Battleship game. Input a number and see if that corresponds to the location of a ship. Web-based game that uses only HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. Uses some image/sound assets from The Legend of Zelda: The Wind Waker

Rock, Paper, Scissors Game

- A simulated game of the classic rock paper scissors. Computer selects a random number 1-3 for their move. Working on incorporating AI-based computer moves. Web-based game that uses only HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. Did my own image editing for some of the asset
